San Francisco, our most requested destination, offers travelers two in-built assets: a world-class museum of art and culture, and a major city that is one of the most compact. The Bay is spanned by two luminaries, the Golden Gate and San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. Our world-renowned museums, the Exploratorium and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, offer a world-class collection of art, architecture, and science. Great cleansing drafts from the Pacific wash the city in all seasons giving it an aura of perpetual spring. Its principal attractions are the century-old cable cars, Fisherman’s Wharf, Alcatraz Island, Golden Gate Bridge, Mission District, the pagoda-inspired Japanese Center, the Victorian shopping sector known as Cow Hollow, Ocean Beach and Seal Rocks, Union Square, and North Beach. The city has more restaurants per capita than any other in the U.S. San Francisco also supports an array of a blossoming theater, a world-class symphony orchestra, a ballet that has won international acclaim, an annual International Film Festival, four public art museums, dozens of galleries, and the famous Fisherman’s Wharf presenting top-tier New York, London, and the local production circuit. The modern San Francisco’s art scene offers a cultural experience outside of the ordinary. The city’s world-class museums, the Exploratorium and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, offer a world-class collection of art, architecture, and science.
