The Hyatt Regency Aruba Resort is a beachfront resort on picturesque Palm Beach. Dive into a magnificent, three-lane swimming pool, each with a waterfall spurting down into the pool, and enjoy a sunset drink on the outdoor bar for your favorite cocktail. Later, unwind at the Silversun Spa or in one of two outdoor whirlpools.

For kids, Hyatt’s Camp Wonders is the perfect place to experience the culture and customs of Aruba. Hard court basketball, pool and beach volleyball, and two high-tier tennis courts will help keep you in shape. The hotel club features a state-of-the-art core center with theater entertainment. Daily activities such as yoga, bingo, and rally-less happy hours are always fun to join and a great way to meet new friends. Enjoy dining in one of six stylish on-site restaurants. When night falls, entertainment awaits. Whether it’s a romantic dinner, live music, or a lively night in the club, Hyatt has it all covered. Be sure to check out the full list of available amenities on-site.

Palm Beach, Aruba
Desert beauty bordering a tropical ocean. An array of ancient caves, coral reefs, legendary lagoons, open-air markets, and colorful boutiques define this Heritage Village. A large sea turtle sanctuary, a beach of sparkling white sands and turquoise waters. An astounding variety of marine life awaits in the protected waters of the coral reef. Snorkeling or scuba diving is an unforgettable experience. Relax by the beach, have a cocktail, or even go for a swim. The sunsets are incredible. Less than a mile offshore, the sea abounds with schools of yellow and black, and yellow tails and marlin. Sport-fishing trips are widely available. The German freighter Antilia, sunk at the site of World War II in the southeast corner of the island, is a favorite destination of scuba divers.
